

The Heart of Worship (Psalms 95:6)

Worship is something that you do unto God (1 Peter 2:9)

Worship is the laying down of our lives. It is the heart's response to a God who is good, who has reached out to us in the fullness of love through His Son Jesus Christ.

Music is a glorious gift that God has created for us to utilize in worship. But worship is more than music. The heart of the issue is: did you worship?

Worship does something to you

Worship doesn't change God. It changes you. When we encounter God in worship, we are transformed.

The beholding and becoming principle (2 Cor. 3:17-18)

True Biblical worship confronts carnal pride (Heb. 13:15)

Worship requires something of us (2 Sam. 24:24; Rom. 12:1)

Worship invites God's presence

(Matt. 6:9-10; Exo. 33:15-17; Psa. 84:10)
